We complain about the trolls then we complain about being in moderation? It seems to be necessary at the moment to keep the blog clean and fun, but to your point, it will pose a bit of an obstacle when following a potential winter storm –cereal time– I am confident Gary and the team can figure out a short term solution if/when a storm looks to materialize (which will be very soon)

John 20: 1- 18. So close, yet so far away. 1 Now the first day of the week Mary Magdalene went to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. 2 Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and said to them, –They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him ...

So Close, Yet So Far Away Sermon by Thomas Swope, John 20

So close, and yet so far. Look at the crowd that was on the verge of a riot and demanding His crucifixion. They followed Him from the fishes and loaves, the healing and the love that they received, all the way to Calvary, mocked Him and sat down and watched His blood flow down the cross, watched Him die. That close and just couldn't get it.
