People often note a sophomore slump or sequelitis where the second work in a series or the other works by an author are noticeably worse than the first and most popular.. Some of this can be inherent to the successor, since they cannot, for example, benefit from the magic of world-building a second time.

Ignatius laid out his original vision for the new order in the "Formula of the Institute of the Society of Jesus", which is "the fundamental charter of the order, of which all subsequent official documents were elaborations and to which they had to conform." He ensured that his formula was contained in two papal bulls signed by Pope Paul III in 1540 and by Pope Julius III in 1550.
